SNOWY MOUNTAINS, AU

Cold front Friday. Worth the drive.

Feels like winter is finally showing up. A southerly front rolls in late Thursday and parks over the range Friday into Saturday. 20-30cm at Perisher and Thredbo by Sunday lunch is a fair bet, with lifts reopening higher up. Quiet again Monday.

Perisher	23cm forecast · -6°C · lifts open
Thredbo	27cm forecast · -7°C · most lifts spinning
Selwyn	12cm · base still thin, weekday only
Charlotte's Pass	21cm · road chains required Fri PM

Drive: black ice on the Alpine Way from 5am Friday. Stay: Jindabyne booked out Sat, Berridale still has rooms.

Spring in Shibu Onsen. Snow monkeys still around.

Feels like the season turned overnight. Plum blossoms out in the village, monkeys still bathing daily at Jigokudani (less crowded now the snow's gone). Shiga Kogen closed for the season Sunday, but onsen-hopping weather is perfect.

Yudanaka	16°C · light drizzle · onsen weather
Shibu Onsen	All 9 outer baths open · book the stamp tour
Jigokudani	Monkey park open 8:30-17:00 daily
Shiga Kogen	Lifts closed · summer trails open mid-June

Eat: enzo soba pop-up at Yorozuya weekends only. Stay: kaiseki ryokan rates drop ~30% from next week.
